

Intellectual Property, Brand Identity & Digital Asset Protection

NotOnlyQueens™ is a registered trademark and a proprietary digital platform exclusively owned by NOQ S.R.L. All rights related to the brand, identity, platform architecture, software, technological infrastructure, and communication assets are protected under national and international intellectual property laws.

Brand and Trademark Protection

The NOQ™ logo, all visual elements, brand guidelines, marketing materials, communication style, tone of voice, and the entire creative identity associated with NotOnlyQueens™ constitute proprietary assets of NOQ S.R.L. This includes the brand's narrative, positioning, messaging framework, and any distinctive marketing expression used across digital and physical channels.

Social Media Assets

All official social media channels — Facebook @notonlyqueen, Instagram @notonlyqueen, TikTok @notonlyqueen, Telegram @notonlyqueen — and all related content, visuals, posts, videos, community interactions, and communication formats are protected as digital assets of NOQ S.R.L. Unauthorized reproduction, impersonation, scraping, extraction, or reuse of these channels or their content is strictly prohibited.

Technological Infrastructure

All software components, source code, platform architecture, workflows, business logic, data structures, cloud infrastructure, and proprietary operational models are the exclusive property of NOQ S.R.L. NotOnlyQueens™ is a unique, original project, with a protected conceptual model and technological structure that cannot be replicated, reproduced, or imitated without violating intellectual property and trade secret regulations.

Content and Data Protection

All user data, digital content, and platform materials are processed in compliance with GDPR and applicable privacy, security, and data-protection regulations. Unauthorized access, extraction, or reuse of platform data is strictly prohibited.

Legal Enforcement

Any misuse, unauthorized reproduction, or infringement of NOQ S.R.L.'s intellectual property rights may result in civil and criminal legal action. NOQ S.R.L. reserves all rights to protect its brand, technology, and digital assets across all jurisdictions.
